

Meet Gina Porter: Nurturing Little Minds and Businesses

Gina Porter is not just a childcare provider; she's a visionary entrepreneur dedicated to shaping the future of early childhood education. With a Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education from the University of West Georgia and a Master of Business Administration specializing in Human Resources, Gina combines her passion for childcare with a strategic business acumen.

Her journey began in human resources, where she honed her skills supporting large workforces at prominent firms like Georgia-Pacific and Aldridge Pite. Transitioning into childcare, Gina led as Human Resources Manager at Cobb Pediatric Therapy Services, overseeing a diverse team including licensed therapists and office staff.

As Vice President of Human Resources for Domain Capital Group's subsidiaries, Gina's leadership fostered thriving organizational cultures, impacting bottom lines with innovative HR solutions. Today, Gina continues her mission in a multinational investment banking and financial services company, where her expertise in HR strategy enhances employee engagement and business success.

Beyond the boardroom, Gina's heart lies in crafting enriching environments for young children. As the Chief Executive Officer of Blast Learning Academy, the center offers nourishment and developmentally enriching experiences tailored to children's unique needs. Gina's commitment to excellence extends to accommodating special dietary needs and family preferences, ensuring every child feels valued and supported.

A member of the Society of Human Resources Management and certified as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) by HRCI, Gina exemplifies dedication to both professional growth and community impact. Her roles as a loving mother of two and wife to her college sweetheart highlight her belief in family values and the importance of a supportive home life.

In her spare time, Gina enjoys crafting and event planning, activities that reflect her creativity and passion for making every moment special. With Gina Porter at the helm, families can trust they are receiving not only exceptional childcare but also a nurturing environment where children thrive and grow into confident, curious learners.
